POLICE CHIEFS SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

This program, funded by Sig Sauer Inc. Firearms, is designed to allow a police chief from a smaller agency to attend the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) Annual Conference for the first time. The scholarship will allow the recipient to attend up to four days, which will be enough time to attend training sessions, exhibits, the Opening Session and Host Chief's Night, as well as network with fellow professionals.

The scholarship will provide transportation, up to four (4) nights hotel stay, and conference registration. Transportation will be at the coach rate (if flying) or at the federal allowance for mileage. Any and all additional costs are at the expense of the recipient or their state association of chiefs of police. Two applicants from each of the four SACOP Regions will be selected, for a total of eight award winners.

Please fill out all of the required information, attach a resume and submit the completed document to your association's executive director, president, or SACOP representative. If you have any questions, please contact:

On an extensive complex of indoor and outdoor ranges, the Academy provides customized training in security subjects for corporate customers and law enforcement agencies on a contract basis.

SIG SAUER has a rich history of innovation and design leadership and continues to advance the design practice of firearms.

The International Association of Chiefs of Police is the world's oldest and largest non-profit membership organization of police executives, with more than 20,000 members in more than 100 countries.

Founded in 1893, the association's goals are to advance the science and art of police services; to develop and disseminate improved administrative, technical and operational practices and promote their use in police work; to foster police cooperation and the exchange of information and experience among police administrators throughout the world; to bring about recruitment and training in the police profession of qualified persons; and to encourage adherence of all police officers to high professional standards of performance and conduct.

Since 1893, the International Association of Chiefs of Police has been serving the needs of the law enforcement community. Throughout those past 100-plus years, we have been launching historically acclaimed programs, conducting ground-breaking research and providing exemplary programs and services to our membership across the globe.
