

CHIEFS DAY AT THE CAPITOL

Tuesday, February 24, 2009, has been declared "Police Chiefs/Heads of Law Enforcement Agencies Day" at the Georgia State Capitol. There will be a general assembly meeting coupled with a very short Executive Board meeting at the following location:

Georgia Department of Corrections
Commission's Board Room
8th Floor, East Tower Floyd Building
#2 MLK Drive
Atlanta, Georgia 30303

The Georgia Department of Corrections is located directly across the street from the Capitol. This assembly and meeting will start at 9:00 AM sharp. At this meeting, I will provide a short overview about how to identify both Senators and Representatives. Additionally, attendees will be provided with a training session titled "The State's Legislative Process".

I urge you to visit with your Representatives and Senators immediately after we break from our assembly. Then at 12:00 PM we will meet in the Rotunda, North staircase, inside the Capitol for photos and the reading of two proclamations. One Resolution will be read by Senator Jack Murphy honoring GACP's 2008 Chief of the Year, GBI Director Vernon Keenan and Representative Burke Day will read the second Resolution designating "Police Chiefs/Heads of Law Enforcement Agencies Day" at the Capitol.

Three hours of executive level training will be granted for all attendees. After the reading of the proclamations and photos at the Capitol, we will return to the Twin Towers (Floyd Building) for lunch. If you have any questions, feel free to call our office at 770-495-9650.

Please show support to GACP by being there on Tuesday, February 24, 2009 and if possible, wear your uniform.

Sincerely,

Frank Vincent Rotondo
Executive Director
